

Wade,

Thank you so much for your prompt note! I am slow as I am trying to rectify the invisible errors. I must tell you that I have received numerous comments about your DJing, all positive by the way.

Here is what my sister in law said:

" The Dj was incredible. Most of them are wanna be lounge lizards. They try to be funny, the center of the show, make bad jokes, and ruin the event by corny comments. Wade did an extraordinary job. He had the most awesome itinerary. It was fun, his timing to give the group a rest, to get a drink or catch their breath and his willingness to take requests and try to make everyone happy was unusual, to say the least. However, you could tell that Jake and Ewelina were his primary focus. WE loved the montage!!"

This is the same that I have heard from so many people and so many saw the montage. FYI: It took Jake 4 years to get from "Hello" to "Will you marry me?". I wish I had had the presence of mind and the list of the responses. I could have given you names in their lifetime time-line and it would have been fun to integrate this and have the folks who were players in their time-line to stand when you got to them.

The rabbit game was amazing. I had no idea there were so on the same track!!! This makes me and Jim very happy. Evidently, they are made for each other.

It was all such fun and Jimmy especially loved being able to sing to me. I forgot to get you to play "our song" , Time in a Bottle by Jim Croche(sp?). But we will have plenty of nights to dance all alone for many nights to come.

Last night we broke out the video montage you did. We watched it three times and I am happy to say it was so moving we both cried. I boo hooed the most, of course. It was such a nice tribute and a small smattering of their history.

I don't know if you go to San Antonio or not but I recommended you to a friend and will do so to everyone who will listen.

Please let me know if I can be any help to you. It would be my pleasure. I will even buy candy bars for the ball team. Jim and both were coaches for many years for our boys teams from the littlest t-ball on up. What fun and memories that are priceless.

Boy are we happy. Hang in there and you maybe can do the wedding of our granddaughter or grandson in the next 30 years.

Our very best to you and yours. can you tell me what you and your family enjoy doing together or do you have an outside passion???

Sincere regards and gratitude.
